Requests for Disclosure of Personal Information to the Students' Union For The Purpose of Authenticating Students

The Information and Privacy Office (IPO) has approved an authentication process for the Students' Union to verify students who have applied to opt out of dedicated fees. The Students' Union will collect CCIDs and Student IDs from students who wish to opt out. The Students' Union will send this list to the University's Registrar's Office, who will validate which CCID and Student ID combinations are of current undergraduate students who have been assessed Students’ Union Dedicated Fees for that term. The Registrar's Office may also provide the on or off campus status of each valid CCID and Student ID combination for the purposes of facilitating this process.
